

THE CITY

We understand that the small-pox is prevailing in Chattanooga quite badly.

The Pearl and Dolbear case was argued yesterday before Recorder Foster and the decision will be delivered to-day.

The alarm of fire last night was caused by the burning of some tar opposite the new building being erected on Deaderick street near College street.

PEDDLING WITHOUT LICENSE.—Quite a number of peddlers were yesterday fined by Recorder Foster for having failed properly to renew their licenses, which but recently expired.

ASSAULT.—A man named J. T. Jackson was yesterday fined ten dollars for striking a colored boy, one of the waiters at the Steadman House.

WITHIN AN HOUR AND THIRTY MINUTES after the President's message was received in the city, our corps of compositors had it in type. It would be hard to find a more expert set of printers.

QUICK TIME.—Allison Bros. shipped by Southern route 145 bales cotton to New York, which arrived there on the 30th ult, making eight days, including days of departure and arrival.

We understand that the Supreme Court will adjourn in a few days until after the Christmas holidays, when it is expected there will be a full court, Judge Milligan being absent at present from indisposition.

HATS OFF.—Yesterday morning the City Marshal was fined five dollars because he allowed a gentleman to keep his hat on inside the bar of the Recorder's Court. The hat man was also fined five dollars.

AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—A. Nelson & Co., and J. L. & R. W. Brown, agents, will sell at auction, to-day, at 10 A. M., a large amount of real estate on and near the corner of Broad and Cherry streets. See advertisement.

PERSONAL.—Among the numerous visitors to the city on yesterday we had the pleasure of meeting Col. John H. Savage, of McMinnville, Maj. Tom. Boyers, of Gallatin, Hon. Charles Ready, Dr. W. T. Baskett and Maj. David T. Maney, of Murfreesboro.

PLEASANT weather is contrary to the expectation of every one. The weather cleared up on Monday night and yesterday was a beautifully clear and sunny day. The temperature was mild and the air pure and bracing. Old Boreas seems loth to fasten his final hold and drag us away from the enchanting weather of autumn.

AN AGED BUMMER.—An old man seventy-one years of age, was before the Police Court yesterday morning, on the charge of having been intoxicated and indulging in disorderly conduct. The old man was on his way from Louisville to Murfreesboro, and in consideration of his age the court, dismissed the case, and the ancient gentleman went on his way rejoicing.

TOOK AN OVERDOSE OF MORPHINE.—Yesterday afternoon an old and highly respectable citizen of the Fourth Ward, named Peleg Blakely, took four grains of morphine through mistake, and at twelve o'clock last night was lying at the point of death and not expected to survive until morning. Mr. Blakely has been a sufferer from neuralgia and has often received relief from morphine, a half grain of which he intended to take yesterday, but as we have seen, through mistake swallowed four grains.

SALE OF CENTRAL BUSINESS PROPERTY TO-DAY.—Messrs. A. Nelson & Co., and J. L. & R. W. Brown, sell, without reserve, this morning at ten o'clock, that splendid central business property situated on the corner of Broad and Cherry streets. It has been so divided as to make several most eligible business houses, entirely separate from each other, and being sold regardless of price, offers inducements that cannot be overlooked. See advertisement.

THE SUPREME COURT.—Yesterday the case of J. W. Roberts vs. S. McHenry, on the equity docket of the fifth circuit, and in the case of Smith & Scroggs vs. W. R. Brown, a demurrer of the records was suggested, and writs of certiorari ordered. The equity and law dockets of the fifth circuit were argued and submitted to the Court, and also a portion of the law docket on the sixth circuit.

A SAD CASE.—A female named Mary Jane Nichol was arrested on Monday night by the police, on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. She is one of the lowest females of lost virtue, a sad wreck of what once was a woman. Her dilapidated apparel was so torn and ragged as to hardly cover her person, and was far from satisfying the demands of virtue. Being unable to appear at the Recorder's Court, she submitted her case, and was fined ten dollars.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR IN THE GRAND MASONIC LODGE OF TENNESSEE.—The election of officers for the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, was held last night, with the following result:

Joseph M. Andrews, of Lebanon, Grand Master.
John W. Paxton, of Knoxville, Deputy Grand Master.
J. S. Dawson, of Paris, Senior Grand Warden.
John W. Hughes, of Clifton, Junior Grand Warden.
W. H. Horn, of Nashville, Grand Treasurer.
Charles A. Fuller, of Nashville, Grand Secretary.
Rev. A. J. Baird, of Nashville, Grand Orator.

Shocking Murder near Kingston Springs.—A Man's Head Chopped Open with an Ax.—The Perpetrators Flee.—Great Excitement in the Neighboring Towns.

On Monday night one of the most shocking murders that we have been called upon to record for a long time, was perpetrated near Kingston Springs, on the Northwestern Railroad. The victim of this terrible crime was Mr. H. C. White, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Cheatham county. The particulars, so far as we have been able to learn them, are as follows: Mr. White is joint owner of two saw-mills, located about two miles from Kingston Springs, where he lives in a comfortable cabin convenient to his business. Having no family, he has lived a rather retired life, no one living with him but a housekeeper and two or three negro employees, who, however, have separate quarters. On Sunday night Mr. White was engaged until near eleven o'clock, posting up the books connected with the saw-mill business. Shortly after finishing his writing, he took the candle and prepared to retire. As he crossed the threshold of his bedroom, from the dining-room, he was assaulted by a man named Patterson, who had been concealed in the sleeping apartment. He struck him with the head of an ax, with which he was armed, crushing in the skull as though it had been an egg-shell. As the man fell insensible to the floor, the blow was resumed with the edge of the ax, mangle the body in a ghastly manner.

The housekeeper, who was in another portion of the dwelling, was aroused by the noise of the assault, and the one long death cry of the victim, and catching sight of the murderer as she opened the door, fled terror-stricken from the spot, arousing the negro employees. In a very short time a party returned to the house, but the murderer had fled, leaving only his bloody work to tell of his recent presence.

It is thought that this terrible crime was perpetrated for the sake of money, as it was known that Mr. White sometimes had considerable sums of money in his possession, in connection with his business of the mill. The escape of the housekeeper from the dwelling during the assault upon the unsuspecting man, and the certainty that assistance would soon be brought, deterred the perpetrator from making, at least, more than a hurried search of the house. He fled with all haste from the premises, after rifling the pockets of his victim of about a hundred dollars.

The dreadful crime has produced intense excitement throughout the community, and strenuous efforts will doubtless be made to bring the perpetrator to justice. Mr. White, we understand, was a man of character and standing, and highly respected by all who knew him. A coffin was yesterday obtained from this city, and the remains of the murdered man will doubtless be buried to-day.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.—A large congregation attended, Sunday, the services of the Episcopal Church of the Advent, on Vine street. The music, aided by the fine organ recently put up by the liberality of our earnest layman, was appropriately rendered, and what was specially commendable, it was of a description enabling the whole congregation to join with one voice and heart. The Church of the Advent, as our readers probably are generally aware, is a free Church, where all are invited to attend and occupy any seats they find vacant, the services being entirely supported by the free will offerings of the congregations. The Rev. James Moore, formerly of Maryland, has accepted the Rectory of the parish, and we trust, under his earnest and faithful labors, this parish, whose first called Rector was the lamented Tones, which afterwards increased largely under the genial and large-hearted Quintard, now Bishop, will be established upon a permanent basis. We hear Mr. Moore, highly spoken of in all quarters.

Bishop Quintard was in the city, on Monday last, and preached at Christ Church in the evening with his usual force and eloquence, urging upon the Church the necessity of greater exertion to meet the tide of irreligion and vice, the ignorance and want which abound in every quarter. On Friday morning services were held at the Church of the Advent, when the Bishop made an address to the congregation.

Confirmation was administered by the Rev. Bishop of the Church of the Advent, last evening, and we learn the Bishop will again preach at Christ Church this evening, at 7 o'clock.

Proceedings of the Supreme Court, Nashville, Dec. 4, 1866.—Court met yesterday at 10 o'clock. Present, Judges Shackelford and Hawkins.

In the case of J. W. Roberts vs. S. McHenry, on the equity docket of the fifth circuit, and in the case of Smith & Scroggs vs. W. R. Brown, a demurrer of the records was suggested, and writs of certiorari ordered. The equity and law dockets of the fifth circuit were argued and submitted to the Court, and also a portion of the law docket on the sixth circuit.

The business of the sixth circuit will be resumed again to-day.

MASSONIC. Grand Lodge of Tennessee Free and Accepted Masons.—Report of Grand Master Thos. A. Hamilton.

We make the following extracts from the report of the Grand Master of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Tennessee:

During the past year, we have caused dispensations to be issued for new Lodges at the following places:

Nov. 17, 1865—At Ten-mile Valley.
Nov. 23, 1865—At Jacksboro'.
Dec. 13, 1865—At Blountville.
Dec. 25, 1865—At Lynchburg.
Jan. 1, 1866—At Yellow Creek.
Feb. 1, 1866—At Barren Plains.
Feb. 19, 1866—At Woodland.
March 22, 1866—At Little Hatchie.
May 26, 1866—At Fountain Head.
May 26, 1866—At Loveville.

All the applications for these new Lodges came properly recommended both as to the necessity for them and as to the ability and fitness of the officers selected to govern them.

We have rejected quite a number of applications, for various reasons. In some cases there was a total want of observance of the requirements of the Grand Lodge; others came to hand in proper form but after the usual time for granting dispensations. These have been referred to your honorable body for consideration.

In November, 1865, the Master of La Grange Lodge No. 81, addressed us as follows: "A gentleman, unexceptionable in every respect as to moral worth, is desirous to become a member of our institution, but his right hand is disabled. Should he be admitted?" We decided that he could not be admitted, and that the law should be strictly construed as to the physical qualifications of candidates.

A brother who had received the degrees in what was reported to us as an irregular or clandestine Lodge in New Orleans, visited the Lodges in the city of Memphis, after the usual examination. After a time he applied to us, in open Lodge, through Brother Lewis Amie, Jr., to know if what manner he could become a member, he having no demerit. We learned from the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Louisiana, that the Lodge in which he had received his degree was irregular and clandestine. Learning his good character and regular deportment, both before and after receiving the degrees, and being convinced that if any wrong had been done, he was not the guilty party, we decided to heal him. And this was done, therefore, in the usual manner.

We received a communication from Clarksville Lodge, requesting a dispensation to confer the three symbolic degrees upon a gentleman who had not resided the lawful time in their jurisdiction. We replied that in our opinion no such power was vested in us as Grand Master. We received a communication from Roach Lodge No. 195, requesting an opinion on the following question: A gentleman of Columbia, Tenn., petitioned Columbia Lodge No. 31 for initiation, and was rejected. After waiting the proper time, the members of this Lodge informed him that the objection to his taking the degrees was removed. He then informed them that he preferred Roach Lodge No. 195, and petitioned accordingly. To this the members of Columbia Lodge No. 31 objected, and the Master of No. 195 referred the matter to us.

We decided that the applicant had the right, under the circumstances, to select his lodge, as the two lodges had the same jurisdiction. In support of these two last opinions we cited "Edicts and Resolves," No. 8. We would suggest to the Grand Lodge the adoption of a uniform code of by-laws for the government of the Subordinate Lodges. Such a diversity of laws have been adopted by various Grand Lodges for the different Lodges, and so many rules and regulations have been adopted by them, that some official action should be taken by you to remedy these evils. Committees on by-laws (from the Grand Lodge) have usually so little time afforded them, that it is impossible for them to correct all the errors and irregularities in the copies submitted to them for examination. We would suggest that a uniform code be adopted for all the Lodges, and printed with the Grand Lodge proceedings. The time and place of meeting, name and number, and the fees and dues may be left blank, to be filled in according to the requirements of each Lodge.

A suggestion for the good of the craft generally, has presented itself to our mind. It is, that brethren should take into consideration the idea of building or founding an asylum, for the care of the aged and infirm veterans of our Order, as well as the widows and orphans of deceased brethren. We are aware that this good work would be a labor and an undertaking, which would require some years, yet the vast amount of good which could be done by it, has presented itself so strongly to our mind, that we have thought it well to ask the brethren generally to take it under serious consideration. Other Grand Lodges have founded these great works of Masonic charity, and we see no reason why ours should not emulate their bright examples, and be the noble means of doing as much good. We are annually expending a very large amount, as a fraternity, of means and resources in affording merely temporary relief to the sick and indigent. No permanent or lasting good can be attained in this manner. Now, we think that an united effort on the part of all the brethren of this grand jurisdiction, would secure the foundation of an asylum, which would afford a peaceful home for the declining years of aged and infirm brethren, a quiet and certain livelihood for the unprotected widow, and a provident and fostering care of the orphan. For all of these great considerations, we ask the earnest attention of the brethren to this enterprise, and hope it will receive their approbation, and we would advise, that a committee be appointed for the purpose of perfecting some feasible plans for the attainment of the desired object.

PAY FOR NEGROES.—Under a recent act of Congress, a commission has been appointed by the Secretary of War, and will soon convene in Nashville, Tennessee, for the purpose of awarding to persons entitled to the benefits of said act compensation not exceeding $300 for each slave enlisted or drafted into the United States service in Tennessee. Under this act, claims for slaves owned not only in Tennessee, but also in Kentucky, but who were enlisted or drafted in the State of Tennessee into the United States service, must be prosecuted before this commission.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The Court met at 9 o'clock, and resumed the consideration of the jail docket.

James Helton plead "not guilty" to an indictment for grand larceny, a case of alleged horse-stealing, was convicted, the jury assigning a punishment of ten years in the penitentiary.

In the larceny case against William G. W. Parsons, the defendants were allowed by the court to take depositions of witnesses at distant points, on giving ten days' notice to the Attorney General.

The larceny case against Peter Leay and Peter Purcell was continued until the third Monday in January, and they were remanded to jail.

The larceny case against Henry Washington, colored, was not pressed on payment of costs.

Several cases of gaming and unlawful tipping were dismissed on payment of costs.

R. W. Pritchell, Charles H. Ewing, and R. L. Caruthers, Jr., were sworn in as practicing attorneys before the court.

Adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday morning, Dec. 4, at the residence of the bride's father, Springfield, Tenn., by the Rev. R. F. Bunting, Mr. EUGEN JONES, Cashier of Third National Bank, to Miss SUSIE S. daughter of Col. E. S. Cheatham.

May this bright and cloudless morning on which the joyous couple were so happily united be symbolical of their future life.

Tribute of Respect.—At a meeting of the Nashville Medical Society, held yesterday morning at the Hall of the Board of Health, the President announced to the Society the sudden decease of Dr. S. L. WHARTON.

The following resolutions were introduced by Dr. F. M. Hughes, seconded by Dr. John Callender, and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Nashville Medical Society has learned with deep regret the death of one of its most learned and honorable members, Dr. SAMUEL L. WHARTON, which sad event occurred in this city after a brief illness, on the evening of the 24th inst.

Resolved, That this Society tender to the relatives of the deceased their sincere condolences, and that the members of this Society accompany his remains to the place of their interment.

Resolved, That the Nashville Journal of Medicine and Surgery be furnished with a copy of these proceedings, and be requested to publish the same.

The Society then adjourned.
E. MEYERS, M. D., President.
GEORGE S. BLACKIE, M. D., Secretary.
